PLAY CHESS AND ENJOY SUMMER IN PARAĆIN !!!

Paraćin was mentioned for the first time in the charters from 14th century. In the classical period at the place of the present town was the station Sarmates on the military road (VIA MILITARIS). Paraćin is the town on the Crnica river, from ancient times at the crossroads of important ways.

During the second half of 19th century Paraćin becomes the industrial centre by establishing the Factory of woollens by Minhs brothers, the glass factory and the factory of cement.

Today Paraćin is a modern business centre to which a large area outside the territory of Paraćin's commune gravitates.

Thirty thousand inhabitants live in Paraćin, while the whole commune together with 34 villages counts about seventy thousand inhabitants.

Paraćin is located near E-75 highway (corridor X) 156 km southern than Belgrade and 80 km northwards than Niš.

The inhabitants of Paraćin, traditionally full of enterprising spirit, ready to accept all positive trends, are trying to use comparative advantages wishing to make theirs and everybody else's lives better.
